ORACLE

HIGH SCHOOL

ORIES....

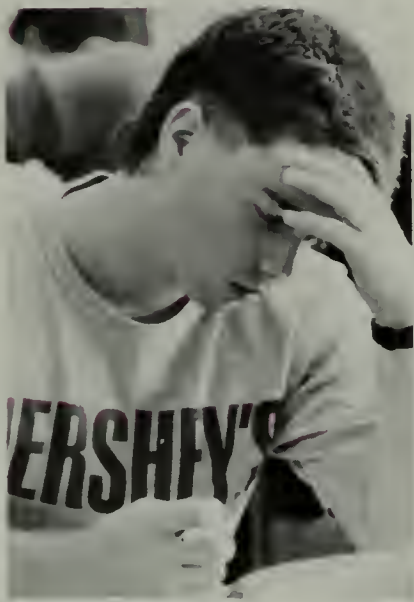

Reflections Upon Our Senior Year . . .

We, The Class of 1968, Present A Picture of Our Senior Year At Randolph High School.

Randolph H.S. Randolph, Mass.

It is a treasure
chest of memories
of our joys, of our frustrations, and of our achievements.
It is a catalogue
of the events and activities that brought meaning into our lives. And, it will become a permanent record of the members of the class of 1989. However, now that our high school years have ended, and we are looking toward the future, it is appropriate to return and reflect upon those high school years which have led to this memorable of years.

A new phase of our lives had begun when, as Freshmen, we walked into the front foyer of Randolph High School. We were faced with having to adjust to a new environment, to more responsibility, and to the pressures of parents and more studying. New friendships were formed, and some old ones lost. Such events as class dances and "the Jungle" hall day were very successful as were our trip to Rockypoint and the Freshman car wash. At this point, the class had begun to come together

as one group, the Class of 1989.

As Sophomores, we were at a slight advantage. We were familiar with the school. We knew our way around. We were one year closer to
being upperclassmen.
We used teamwork to
sell beach towels,
but, most importantly,
teamwork was the

dominating factor in the Sophomore victory over the

Juniors during the

game. The deaths of our

Principal, Philip M. Saba, and a member of the senior class, Arziela Lomba, deeply saddened us.

Our Junior year was a memorable one. We were now officially "upperclassmen" and had many events to which to look forward. Many of us experienced the thrill of receiving our driver's licenses. At this point, our high school career was halfway finished, yet there was much more to be accomplished. Santa's Dream, the first semi-formal dance of high school, arrived on Dec. 11, 1987.

However, the highlight of the year was the Junior Prom.
Who will ever
forget the
limos, the dancing
and the overwhelming

feeling of togetherness.

Finally, the school
year ended, and we prepared ourselves
to become Seniors.

Best Wishes, Scott!

Randolph teens to parade their stuff

While most high school students were home eating turkey on Thanksgiving, members of the ShowChoir, "Illusions", were singing and dancing down Broadway in the Macy's Parade.

"Illusions" was able to perform in a 500 member showchoir "America Sings." "America Sings" was formed to raise money for the outstanding number of homeless children in America.

During the three day stay in New York, the students were able to study with John Jacobsen, a renowned ShowChoir director and prestigious choreographer. Jacobsen produced and directed "America Sings."

Dear Senior Class of 1989:

Congratulations to you and your families as you pass a major milestone in your life.

Graduation Day will be one of the most memorable events of your high school experience. It is a day of mixed emotions - pride and optimism as you approach adulthood, but also sadness and anxiety as you leave your familiar surroundings and close friends.

On behalf of the Randolph High School administration, faculty, and staff, I would like to thank all of you for your varied contributions to our school. We have been very impressed with the Class of 1989, and look forward to hearing about your successes in the future.

Sincerely,

Ellen Keane
